Gujarat Technological University (GTU) successfully organized a culturally rich and vibrant Lok Nritya (Folk Dance) Training Camp 2023 from 11th April to 17th April 2023. The camp was designed to promote and preserve the traditional folk dance heritage of Gujarat while offering students a platform to explore and express their artistic talents.

From Government Engineering College, Patan (GEC Patan), two students were honored to be selected for participation in this prestigious cultural training program. Their inclusion in the camp was a matter of great pride for the institute and a reflection of their deep interest in traditional arts and cultural expressions.

The camp was a highly productive and enriching experience. It provided students with the rare opportunity to learn directly from renowned traditional dancers and cultural artists of Gujarat. These experts not only taught folk dance forms but also shared their personal journeys and insights, giving participants a deeper appreciation of Gujarat's rich cultural legacy.

The training covered a variety of aspects such as:

- Introduction to Various Folk Dance Forms of Gujarat (e.g., Garba, Dandiya Raas, Tippani, Hudo)
- Rhythm, Beats, and Traditional Music
- Costume, Expressions, and Choreography
- History and Cultural Significance of Folk Dances
- Group Coordination and Stage Performance Techniques

The students from GEC Patan found the camp to be a transformative and joyful learning experience.

They were inspired by the dedication and talent of the professional artists and gained a deeper understanding of the values and traditions embedded in Gujarat's folk dances. The collaborative environment also helped them enhance their group dynamics, rhythm sense, and stage confidence.

The camp not only celebrated Gujarat's cultural heritage but also encouraged students to carry forward its legacy with pride and creativity. It was a unique blend of learning, expression, and tradition that left a lasting impact on all participants.

We sincerely thank GTU for organizing such a meaningful and culturally enriching camp and for encouraging students to connect with and showcase the vibrant traditions of Gujarat. The Lok Nritya Training Camp 2023 will remain a cherished experience for the students of GEC Patan.
